PROGRAM GUIDE
A Letter from Bank of Hawaii

As the sponsor of the Honolulu Rainbow Film Festival for eight years, Bank of Hawaii is proud to be a strong supporter and partner of the Honolulu Gay and Lesbian Cultural Foundation.

The powerful films selected for this year’s festival are sophisticated and insightful, and showcasing these works of art promotes LGBTQ equality by creating, sharing and protecting LGBTQ stories for the screen. As with every year, the lineup reflects the tremendous diversity of the LGBTQ landscape, and through innovative filmmaking, serves as a launchpad for filmmakers who capture stories of transformative moments.

Bank of Hawaii is pleased to support the Honolulu Gay and Lesbian Cultural Foundation continue its important work. We stand as advocates for a welcoming and inclusive community in which everyone is encouraged to be true to who they are.

Mahalo,
Peter Ho

WELCOME TO THE 29TH ANNUAL HONOLULU RAINBOW FILM FESTIVAL (HRFF29)!

Those who have lived in or visited Hawai‘i know its social and cultural powers. It’s a state full of color, character, and celebration. It thrives, and it strives — it’s diverse and it’s inclusive! After twenty-nine years, the Honolulu Gay & Lesbian Cultural Foundation Board of Directors and Festival Team are pleased to continue to uphold these values and provide a safe space for all communities to come together and commemorate LGBTQ arts, activities, and achievements. We take pride in being one of the longest-running LGBTQ film festivals in the country, and this year, we tirelessly worked our ‘okoles off to enhance your festival experience.

We’re honored to have the Bank of Hawai‘i return as our presenting sponsor along with alumni platinum sponsors: Aqua-Aston Hospitality, Hawaiian Airlines, Honolulu Museum of Art, and Hula’s Bar & Lei Stand. We’re also very fortunate to have our newest platinum sponsors: Hawai‘i Tourism Authority, Honolulu Magazine and Velocity Honolulu.

This year, we offer you a total of 53 films from around the world, and discussions with over 20 special guests from these films—the most we’ve ever had in HRFF history! Also, our newest program partners ClexaCon will be hosting a day of women’s programming and a mixer at Scarlet Honolulu on August 11; and the Asia Pacific Queer Film Festival (APQFFA) will be showcasing short films from notable festivals including ShanghaiPRIDE and Rainbow Reel Toyko on August 18. And let’s not forget our signature Red Carpet Event, which is also on August 18. Please purchase your All-Access Festival Pass — it’s the only way to experience everything HRFF29 has to offer!

Diversity is being invited to the party; inclusion is being asked to dance. All are welcome here. May I have the first dance?

IN LOVING MEMORY OF ADAM BARAN

The Honolulu Rainbow Film Festival is dedicated to the memory of Adam Baran. Adam was one of the world’s first video jockeys and the winner of Billboard Magazine’s first Video Music Awards. Honolulu was fortunate to be one of the cities to have enjoyed the video talents of Adam (along with San Francisco, Los Angeles, and New York). Unfortunately, Adam was one of the first to succumb to AIDS 28 years ago. This dedication to Adam is a way of honoring all of the talented individuals whose lives have been cut short by HIV and AIDS.

SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM GOVERNOR DAVID Y. IGE

In Recognition of the Honolulu Rainbow Film Festival August 9 - 19, 2018

On behalf of the people of Hawai‘i, I send a warm aloha to the sponsors and attendees of the 29th Annual Honolulu Rainbow Film Festival, presented by the Honolulu Gay and Lesbian Cultural Foundation. This event is held in honor of Adam Baran, a video jockey pioneer for the Hawai‘i Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender (LGBT) community. Formerly known as the Adam Baran Honolulu Gay and Lesbian Film Festival, the Honolulu Rainbow Film Festival is one of the longest-running LGBT film festivals in the country. In addition to showcasing 17 films from around the world, this year's event will include a forum that focuses on women’s programs and other special events and exclusive appearances.

The Honolulu Rainbow Film Festival strives to raise a sense of awareness and respect for LGBT culture, arts and lifestyle. As a platform for U.S. and international film premieres, the festival has presented hundreds of documentaries, feature films, shorts and animations from around the world with special consideration given to Hawai‘i-based filmmakers.

Mahalo nui loa to Bank of Hawai‘i, Hawaiian Airlines, Aqua-Aston Hospitality, Honolulu Museum of Art, and Hula’s Bar and Lei Stand for sponsoring the 29th Annual Honolulu Rainbow Film Festival. A special mahalo to the Honolulu Gay and Lesbian Cultural Foundation for inspiring community and civic engagement through its programming and special events, fostering mutual respect within our society, and providing a unique and enriching experience.

With warmest regards,

DAVID Y. IGE
Governor, State of Hawai‘i

Centerpiece Film
SHE IS THE OCEAN
USA // 2017 // 101 MINS // DIR. INNA BLOKHINA
Screening followed by Q&A with filmmaker and cast

In a unique documentary concept, director Inna Blokhina has selected women, from age 12 to 85, in order to create a cumulative mosaic portrait of a woman that devotes her life to the Ocean. Starting with a little girl who dreams of becoming a World Champion, to a marine biologist who teaches people 'shark language', to a woman who was the first to dive from the 23 meter platform, to a legendary surfer who rides the biggest waves in the world, to a woman who plunges into the deepest depths on a single breath, to a paramedic who is saving the lives others but can’t save her own life, to a grandmother who has returned to ride the waves that took the life of her son many years ago, to a great woman who became a ‘Hero of the Planet’ trying to explore and save the Ocean. These inspiring women share one love – a deep affection for the Ocean.

IDEAL HOME
USA // 2018 // 90 MINS // DIR. ANDREW FLEMING

When his grandson shows up at a high class dinner party one evening, Erasmus Dickie Brumble (Steve Coogan, THE DINNER, PHILOMENA) and his filmmaking partner (Paul Rudd, ANT-MAN, I LOVE YOU, MAN) reluctantly take him in. The bickering couple face many challenges as they try to adapt to this new addition to their extravagant home. The boy won’t cooperate, he will only eat Taco Bell and they don’t even know his name! Written and directed by Andrew Fleming, this dramedy is a sweet and funny tale that explores what makes a family. With hilarious cameos from Allison Pill (THE NEWSROOM, AMERICAN HORROR STORY), Kate Walsh (GREY’S ANATOMY, PRIVATE PRACTICE) and Drew Droege (THE CIRCLE, YOU’RE KILLING ME), this film is sure to charm your pants off!

WILD NIGHTS WITH EMILY
USA // 2018 // 84 MINS // DIR. MADELEINE OLNEK
Screening followed by Q&A with filmmaker and cast

The details of poet Emily Dickinson's personal life are scant. The little we do know, is from home-wrecker Mabel Todd - who seduced Emily's brother Austin away from his first wife Susan - and editor T.W. Higgins, who together, published Emily's poems after she died. Mabel recast Emily as the reclusive spinster - a delicate wallflower, too sensitive for this world. Likewise, the long held academic view of Emily as the heroine of American romance - disappointed in love, languishing alone and striking off poems on the birds and the bees - still remains too genteel… until now. This defiant, dramatic comedy by HRFF alum Madeleine Olnek (THE FOXY MERKINS, CODEPENDENT LESBIAN SPACE ALIEN SEEKS SAME) reclaims Emily Dickinson’s identity and explores the rarely seen vivacious, irreverent side of Emily Dickinson (played by Molly Shannon, SATURDAY NIGHT LIVE, OTHER PEOPLE [HRFF27], WET HOT AMERICAN SUMMER, SUPERSTAR) - most notably her passionate thirty-five-year romantic relationship with her brother’s wife, best friend, and Muse, Susan Gilbert Dickinson.

FREAK SHOW
USA // 2017 // 91 MINS // DIR. TRUDIE STYLER

Billy Bloom (Alex Lawther, THE IMITATION GAME, THE END OF THE F*ING WORLD) is one-of-a-kind: a fabulous, glitter-bedecked, gender-bending teenager whose razor-sharp wit is matched only by his outrageous, anything-goes fashion sense. When his glamorous mother (Bette Midler) is forced to send him to live with his straight-laced father, Billy finds himself a diva-out-of-water at his new ultra-conservative high school. Undaunted by the bullies who don’t understand him, the fearless Billy sets out to make a big statement in his own inimitable way: challenging the school’s reigning mean girl (Abigail Breslin, SCREAM QUEENS, LITTLE MISS SUNSHINE) for the title of homecoming queen. This proudly offbeat comedy is an irresistible ode to outsiders and nonconformists of all stripes. With Laverne Cox (ORANGE IS THE NEW BLACK).

THE POET AND THE BOY
KOREA // 2017 // 110 MINS // DIR. KIM YANG-HEE

A married poet in his late 30s, who has lived in Jeju Island all his life, teaches an after school poetry writing class to elementary school students for a living. His greatest source of stress in life is another poet who always criticizes him for writing just pretty poems. Meanwhile, his wife, who runs a specialty product store, is desperate to have a baby and pushes the poet to make love when he is not in the mood. One day, the poet meets a teenage boy working at a donut shop and helplessly develops feelings he has never had before. The poet, his eyes opened to new emotions, matures as an artist, but struggles with his feelings for the boy and his reality. [Korean with English Subtitles]

REINVENTING MARVIN
FRANCE // 2017 // 115 MINS // DIR. ANNE FONTAINE

Martin Clement, born Marvin Bijou, has escaped... a little village in the countryside, his family, his father's tyranny and his mother's resignation. He has escaped intolerance, rejection and the bullying he suffered from being singled out as “different.” Against all odds, he has found allies. First, the middle school principal who introduces him to theater and whose name he later adopts as a symbol of his salvation. Then, his mentor and role model, who encourages him to tell his story on stage. Finally, Isabelle Huppert who helps him bring his show to life. Marvin/Martin will risk everything to create this show that represents so much more than success: it is his path to re-invention. [French with English Subtitles]

SATURDAY CHURCH
USA // 2017 // 81 MINS // DIR. DAMON CARDASIS
Screening followed by Q&A with LUKA KAIN

Ulysses (Luka Kain), a shy and effeminate 14-year-old boy, finds himself coping with new responsibilities as “man of the house” after the unexpected death of his father. Living alongside his mother, younger brother, and conservative aunt, Ulysses is also struggling with questions about his gender identity. He finds an escape by creating a world of fantasy filled with dance and music. Ulysses’ journey takes a turn for the better when he encounters a vibrant transgender community, who take him to “Saturday Church,” a program for LGBTQ youth. Ulysses manages to keep his two worlds apart; appeasing his aunt and discovering his passion for the NYC ball scene, and voguing, until his double life is revealed.

PERU // 2017 // 95 MINS
DIR. ALVARO DELGADO APARICIO

Segundo sees silence as his only option for dealing with his father Noé’s secret. The 14-year-old lives with his parents in a village high up in the mountains of Peru. Noé is a respected artisan and Segundo’s role model. With a loving eye for detail, he artfully crafts altarpieces for churches and homes, and is preparing his son to follow in his footsteps. But cracks form in their tight bond. The film takes an unflinching look behind the facades of a seemingly intact village community, in which patriarchal rules are imposed with unrelenting violence. [Spanish with English Subtitles]

Preceded by JUAN GABRIEL IS DEAD

SHAKEDOWN
USA // 2018 // 82 MINS // DIR. LEILAH WEINRAUB

The story of Los Angeles’ black lesbian strip club scene and its genesis. Owned and operated by women, Shakedown was a series of parties founded by and for African American women in Los Angeles that featured go-go dancing and strip shows for the city's underground lesbian scene. This intimate film chronicles the explicit performances and personal relationships of the party's dancers and organizers including Ronnie-Ron, Shakedown Productions’ creator and emcee; Mahogany, the legendary “mother” of the community; Egypt, their star performer; and Jazmine, the “Queen” of Shakedown. More than just a strip club, Shakedown was one of the few spaces for lesbian subculture that brought together and galvanized a community of freaks and queens of color. THE MISEDUCATION OF CAMERON POST
USA // 2018 // 90 MINS // DIR. DESIREE AKHAVAN
Cameron Post (Chloë Grace Moretz, LET ME IN, KICK-ASS, CARRIE) looks the part of a perfect high school girl. But after she’s caught with another girl in the back seat of a car on prom night, Cameron is quickly shipped off to a conversion therapy center that treats teens “struggling with same-sex attraction.” At the facility, Cameron is subjected to outlandish discipline, dubious “de-gaying” methods, and earnest Christian rock songs – but this unusual setting also provides her with an unlikely gay community. For the first time, Cameron connects with peers, and she’s able to find her place among fellow outcasts. Balancing out inherent drama with understated humor, THE MISEDUCATION OF CAMERON POST looks at a teenage girl grappling with pain and loss, but at the same time, she is creating a family on her own terms and learning what it means to empower herself by having confidence in her own identity.

(5) MEN DON’T WHISPER
USA // 2017 // 22 MINS // DIR. JORDAN FIRSTMAN
After being emasculated at a sales conference, gay couple Reese and Peyton decide the only way to regain their confidence and prove their masculinity is to sleep with some women. When they meet fellow conference attendees and pleasure seekers Beth and Dominique, it seems like a perfect match. Unfortunately sealing the deal is easier said than done.

(6) THE DARE PROJECT
USA // 2005 + 2018 // 32 MINS
DAVID BRIND + ADAM SALKY
In the original, award winning DARE (2005), high school teens Ben and Johnny share one slightly dangerous, very sexy, boundary pushing night in a swimming pool. In the fan-demanded sequel (2018), Ben and Johnny are now in their early 30’s, and they fortuitously run into each other at a party in LA after not seeing each other since high school. They find their original magnetic connection is still strong, but what can they do about it?

HRFF29 // APQFFA SHORTS SHOWCASE

SATURDAY AUGUST 18, 1130 AM
To disprove the enforced unimportance of Asian characters in media, and the general marginalization of Asian sexuality, HRFF is proud to present its inaugural Asia Pacific Queer Film Festival Alliance Shorts Showcase – featuring outstanding and diverse short films from APQFFA member festivals from across Asia.

Founded in 2015 in Taipei, APQFFA is a collective of 17 regional festivals with a shared love of queer cinema, that aims to support and promote films and filmmakers from across the region and pushes for greater visibility for Asia Pacific queer cinema.

(1) CHROMOSOME SWEETHEART
JAPAN // 2017 // 5 MINS // DIR. HONAMI YANO
Some people face each other at a café, others sucking on hair, streets passing by, a girl walking along the riverbed. There are all sorts of people in the world, and there are all shapes of love. This short is a brilliant, poetic, and original meditation on the complexity of love and relationships between women.

(2) BEFORE I GOT FAMOUS
USA // 2017 // 20 MINS // DIR. GIOVANNA SARQUIS
What do both Hollywood and the LGBTQ world have in common? They tend to underrepresent and marginalize Asian American men! Meet budding Chinese actor Alex - gay son, friend, dreamer - as he tries to make his acting dream a reality in Hollywood whilst also tackling the overt racism and discrimination that Asian American actors face while looking for work. Laugh with Alex as he encounters ridiculous stereotypes in this comical two-part sampler of the ten-episode web series.

(3) THE FISH CURRY
INDIA // 2017 // 12 MINS // DIR. ABHISHEK VERMA
28-year-old Lalit is about to come out, and a special occasion calls for a special dish – Maacher Jhol, a Bengali-style fish curry. But will Lalit's curry be delicious enough to win the heart of someone special? Named a 2017 Iris Prize Finalist, and awarded Best Indian Short Narrative Film at the Kashish Mumbai International Queer Film Festival.

(4) UNINVITED
SOUTH KOREA // 2017 // 20 MINS
DIR. SEUNG YEOB LEE
Jungho is not comfortable with his mom's unplanned, sudden visit.

(5) SISAK
INDIA // 2017 // 15 MINS // DIR. FARAZ ANSARI
Set on a bustling Mumbai commuter train, this first-of-its-kind silent film tells the touching story of a romance which develops slowly, through wordless gestures and universal expressions of affection between two strangers. This short has garnered 34 festival awards in addition to being named a 2017 Iris Prize Finalist!

(6) COCOON
CHINA // 2017 // 25 MINS // DIR. LIYING MEI
1997 China is a place of transitions. 11-year-old Qingqing is also in a place of transition. On the cusp of adolescence, she lives with her mom in the peaceful city of Wuhan. Her father, who works in Shenzhen comes home only once a month. When Qingqing discovers her mom's oddly close relationship with a female friend, she starts stalking them, only to discover a secret that will unravel her peaceful family life, and all her burgeoning conceptions about love, sex, and female desire. Named a 2017 Iris Prize Finalist, and awarded Best Film in the Chinese Short Film Competition at the Shanghai Pride Film Festival.

(7) THE END OF OUR YOUTH
TAIWAN // 2016 // 30 MINS // DIR. XIN HE
Liu and Tsengmetin high school and became friends. Before graduating, Tseng confesses his love to Lin. After the two become lovers, the relationship between them begins to get awkward. On the eve of graduation, Liu writes a letter and decides to give it to Tseng on the day of ceremony.

(8) FIRST LOVE
SOUTH KOREA // 2016 // 29 MINS
DIR. JI-SOOK KANG
Based on a true story from South Korea – two young girls fall in love, and even though they’re not out to the world, their relationship endures for forty years. They live a harmonious life until, one day, something happens that challenges their long-term bond.

(9) AFTER ERECTION
HONG KONG // 2017 // 20 MINS
DIR. MAN KEI MAGGIE LEUNG
Alan and Ben meet at a break up party and click right away – so well they decide to leave to get a room. Being that it’s a Saturday night, all the hotels are fully-booked throughout town. They flirt as they wander the streets and alleys of Hong Kong looking for a hotel. From thinking about lust to talking about love, they grow to know each other more, which begs the question: does it really matter to have sex or not?

AARON AMAL
SCREEN WRITER // MARICRUZ
A Los Angeles-based writer with a focus on science fiction and fantasy, his guiding principle, “Same stories, different faces,” takes familiar stories that resonate with audiences and populates them with characters that are not traditionally represented in mass media. MARICRUZ represents this principle in its purest form.

SHARON BELLE
ACTRESS // SWERVE
Born and raised in Ontario, Sharon has been in numerous web series including Streamy-nominated COUPLE-ISH, three seasons of Canadian Screen Award-winning CARMILLA as well as her recent original project STEP SISTERS. She is best known for her starring role of Elise in the series SWERVE, where she recently took on the role of producer.

INNA BLOKHINA
DIRECTOR + PRODUCER // SHE IS THE OCEAN
Acclaimed Russian writer, director and producer of Russia’s first full-length surf documentary ON THE WAVE, which became a phenomenon in Russia, selling out theaters from Moscow to St. Petersburg. SHE IS THE OCEAN is the second chapter in her trilogy of documentaries.

JEANNIE CHESSER
HERO // SHE IS THE OCEAN
Mother to big wave surfer Todd Chesser (who died tragically in 1997), Jeannie herself was Hawaii State Amateur short board women’s champion several times. She’s also a well-known local artist who has been airbrushing boards since the 1970s.

WINNY CLARKE
ACTRESS // SWERVE
Based in Toronto, Winny has had lead roles in various episodes of television series such as WEB OF LIES, MOTIVES AND MURDERS and MURDER U. You can find Winny’s latest film NOBODY FAMOUS on various VOD platforms. She’s excited to film the third season of SWERVE this year.

CAITLIN COMBE
PRODUCER // TWENTY A WEBSERIES
Born in Ireland but raised in South East Asia, Caitlin graduated from Emerson College in December 2016 with a B.A. in Film Production. She is currently working on producing two features, a documentary on Rwanda and a few shorts with her partner in crime, Lily Richards.
LISA DONATO
DIRECTOR + WRITER // FOXY TROT
A writer, director, and activist, her first feature film, SIGNATURE MOVE, world-premiered at SXSW and won the Grand Jury Prize for Best US Narrative Feature at Outfest 2017. Lisa's short films have won many awards on the festival circuit, including Best LGBTQ Short at Cannes: Emerging Filmmaker Showcase for SPUNKLE. She was one of 35 short film directors shortlisted for the prestigious UK Iris Prize for THE NEWS TODAY.

Writer, director and editor, Christine received her M.F.A. in Film Production from Loyola Marymount University in 2016 where she wrote, directed, produced and edited four films, including her thesis film, MARICRUZ, which embodies her passion for crafting inclusive narratives that also showcase the most engaging aspects of genre film.

ROSE MOLINA
HERO // SHE IS THE OCEAN
A ballet and modern dance prodigy, once a darling of the European dance community, Rose walked away from dance performance to pursue freediving. Combining her commitment and discipline she has taken her artistic experience from the stage to the deepest depths of human survival.

ANDREA MOLLER
HERO // SHE IS THE OCEAN
Based in Maui, this Brazilian-American competitive canoeist, surfer and paramedic, started her SUP career in 2005 when she crossed the Ka’iwi Channel competing amongst the men. Today Andrea holds the world record in winning and crossing this channel and has achieved numerous titles in long distance competitions.

JACKIE MONAHAN
ACTRESS // WILD NIGHTS WITH EMILY
A comedian, actor, writer, and producer who is setting comedy stages on fire with her fearless brand of humor. Jackie starred in THE FOXY MERKINS and CODEPENDENT LESBIAN SPACE ALIEN SEEKS SAME. Professionally trained at UCB and Groundlings, she won “Time Out New York Joke of the Year” and was voted “Comic to Watch” by Esquire magazine who said, “Jackie has the looks of your friend’s hot older sister, with the jokes of a deranged serial killer. She will kill you and you will be smiling.”

MADELEINE OLNEK
DIRECTOR + WRITER // WILD NIGHTS WITH EMILY
A New York City-based playwright and filmmaker, Madeleine graduated from NYU and went on to earn an MFA in playwriting from Brown University as well as an MFA in film from Columbia University. First, it’s about quality. “We believe in traditional, old-school preparation,” says Uehara. From broth to noodle to cha-shu, each dish is made from scratch using top-notch ingredients and lots of time. From there, Uehara uses intuition to adapt AGU to neighborhood tastes. Texas locations, for example, offer Hawai‘i dishes such as poke and chicken katsu. In Kalihi, AGU’s only express location caters to on-the-go diners with local favorites such as oxtail curry, and a soon-to-come okazuya. AGU’s spirit of local roots and Japanese authenticity are preserved at each branch by great managers, dedicated employees and, of course, Uehara himself.

WHAT’S NEXT?
In addition to two new branches in Frisco, Texas, and Cupertino, California, slated to open sometime in October, Uehara will also be launching AGU Express, the quick-dining concept of his Kalihi location, into major international airports, beginning with SFO, LAX and ATL.
Life is a journey. Get comfortable.
